ВЪН[A] haunting story . . . Bears witness to the struggles of an African Caribbean woman as she seeks to find her place in America without selling her soul.ВЪК ВЪ"БЕБЕ MOORE CAMPBELL, Author of Your Blues AinВЪ™t Like Mine When Sara Edgehill is given a scholarship to leave Trinidad and attend a college in Wisconsin, she is thrilled. America, the one she has seen in the movies, is a land of dreams, prosperity, and equality. Not like Trinidad, where her parents cast disappointed glances her way because she wasnВЪ™t born with lighter-colored skin. But when Sara leaves her islandВЪ™s brilliant green fields and warm sparkling waters for the pale cornfields of the Midwest, the ties to her home and her past grip her as strongly as AmericaВЪ™s cold, winter winds. For as soon as Sara sets foot in her new home, she must make tough decisions. Wanting desperately to fit in, she begins to understand that in America, the color lines run deeper than they did even in Trinidad. And as Sara forms ties with two other West Indian studentsВЪ™the beguiling, haunted Courtney and the passionate, vivacious SamВЪ™she is irrevocably pulled into the very center of AmericaВЪ™s exploding civil rights movement.
